

Eric Villency hosted cocktails at Maurice Villency to celebrate the debut of Hollywood's "Lune de Miel"

Eric Villency and Tinsley Mortimer

Patrick McDonald

Serena Torrey

On a recent very warm and balmy Tuesday evening, Eric Villency hosted a cocktail party for Holly Dunlap, the creative force behind the Hollywood shoe and clothing brand, to celebrate the debut of her 2005 Cruise Collection "Lune de Miel", the Maurice Villency flagship store at 57th Street and Third Avenue.

Holly Dunlap, Eric Villency, and Maggie Gyllenhaal

Maurice Villency and Hollywood have partnered in what is part of Maurice Villency's Emerging Designer Program. The program, begun in 2002 has its roots in the company's belief that it is important to support young talent, and in its desire to converge fashion and home design. The collection was Holly's first runway show and the theme was "From Russia With Love."

Among the New York City girls attending and modeling

Holly's line were Hope Atherton, Cristina Greeven Cuomo, Genevieve Jones, Gillian Hearst Shaw, Lily Atherton, Tracy Stern, Kate Schelter, Caralie Carriol Paul, Lily Raffi, Gigi Stone and Maggie Gyllenhaal (who left the next morning to start filming "Stranger than Fiction" in Chicago).

Elizabeth Loomis

Holly Dunlap and Cristina Cuomo

Hope Atherton, Gigi Stone, Holly Dunlap, and Kate Schelter

L. to r.: Dennis Paul and Coralie Charriol; Genevieve Jones and Gillian Hearst; Villency groupies.

Lily Atherton, Holly Dunlap, Genevieve Jones, Kate Schelter, Maggie Gyllenhaal, and friend

Sabine Heller and Kate Schelter