Patti shows off her pipes

WHOEVER decided that singers at Carnegie Hall need amplification forgot to tell Patti LaBelle. Midway through her Jazz Festival concert on Saturday, the belter discarded the mike, blasted "Two Steps Away" into the fourth balcony and won a standing ovation. LaBelle will pump up the volume in Bryant Park on Friday for "Good Morning America." Last week, still-sexy LaBelle's 63rd birthday was feted at Serafina by restaurateurs Vittorio Assaf and Fabio Granato and writer Richard Turley. Anne Slater sported a cast on her arm after a taxi she took was rear-ended. (Ambulance chasers need not apply; she just sold her Fifth Avenue digs for $18 million.) Denise Rich asked Yanna Avis to purr Edith Piaf's "Je Ne Regrette Rien," to Patti's delight. Rich is off to St. Tropez. Valentino's June Haynes, who was just back from Tokyo, is off to Rome for the designer's 45th anniversary bash, and to Capri for the wedding of Wolfgang Puck to Ethiopian Galila Essefa. Vanessa and Donald Trump Jr. exchanged baby pictures with Kimberly Guilfoyle and Eric Villency. And Michael Musto gifted the birthday girl with Diana Ross- brand panty hose.

We hear . . . we hear

THAT Gifford Miller, at 35 the youngest of the mayoral candidates, has the youngest supporters — Al Gore's daughter Karena Gore Schiff, fashion designer Tara Subkoff, furniture designer Eric Villency and talent agent Eric Podwall — and they have sold out his fundraiser tonight at Soho House and are planning another for May 19 at Suede . . . THAT Judith Ripka will be rewarding guests at her store-opening party on Madison Avenue tonight with gift bags containing baubles so valuable they will be housed in a Brink's armored truck until given out . . . THAT Barry Slotnick — who just won his fourth lawsuit against the Army on behalf of soldiers called to serve in Iraq — will receive the 2005 Ellis Island Medal of Honor Saturday on Ellis Island . . . THAT CNN's Bill Hemmer and CNBC's Donny Deutsch will judge Esquire magazine's search for the "Best Dressed Real Man in America" Tuesday at Macy's. The winners will compete against men from nine other cities . . . THAT former club king Peter Gatien's daughter Jen is shopping "Holly-Hood," a TV pilot featuring Ghostface Killah, Cameron Douglas and Peter Tunney . . . THAT Molly ("Las Vegas") Sims will host a benefit on Friday in L.A. for Casa Hogar Sion, an orphanage in Tijuana, Mexico, with such pals as Josh Duhamel, Andy Garcia, Bridget Moynahan and Shannon Elizabeth.

MOST ELIGIBLE MEN

SINGLING OUT APPLE'S TOP STUDS

ERIC VILLENCY, 28. Dashing president and creative director of Maurice Villency, a chain of furniture stores founded by his grandfather in 1932. Pro: He sponsors fashion designers so he gets front-row seats to all the shows. Con: Seems serious with his girlfriend of over a year, gorgeous Olivia Chantecaille.
