

What's new in the showrooms—fabrics, furnishings, and fabulous finds

1 True Metals tiles by Maya Romanoff in brushed aluminum and weathered brass or copper create a radiant backdrop when used for ceilings and walls. Call 773-465-6909; mayaromanoff.com. 2 Larsen's first trim collection, Larsen Edge, gives borders a contemporary finish with graphic patterns and a subtle palette. Call Cowtan & Tout at 212-647-6900; cowtan.com. 3 Etro's sumptuous woven textiles now have a dedicated home at Clarence House, where new patterns debut twice a year; clarencehouse.com. 4 Villency Atelier is a new service conceived by Eric Villency that allows industry pros to create custom-made furnishings with assistance from his staff, who oversee every step, from sketches and fabrication to white-glove delivery. At Maurice Villency, 200 E. 57th St., New York. Call 212-485-0584, ext. 3384; villency.com. 5 For the Luna dining table, French designer H el ene Aumont ingeniously stacks 29 disks of rosewood beneath a hand-joined tabletop. Call Profiles at 212-689-6903. 6 Pollack mined fashion archives for the handmade clothing that inspires its new Women's Work textiles. Couture elements such as gold embroidery and smocking embellish the 21 fabrics. Call 212-627-7766. 7 Scalamandr  and Henredon have teamed up for a new furniture collection of 25 upholstered and wood pieces, including the Madison chair, to be sold in select Scalamandr  showrooms starting in April. Visit scalamandre.com.